

(From Monday's Daily)

WERE IN BISBEE.

Frank and Ted Toohey, of the Toohey Construction company, spent yesterday in Bisbee on business.

IN PHOENIX.

H. P. Merrill, of Merrill and Fowler Bros., is spending several days in Phoenix on business matters.

SOME SNOW.

The storm of early Saturday morning caused a five-inch snow fall at the Huachuca reservoir in Miller Canyon.

FROM DOUGLAS.

William O'Brien and family have moved to Tombstone from Douglas and are domiciled in the Bragg home place.

VISITING DAUGHTER.

Mrs. C. W. Hicks is spending several days here from her home at Bisbee the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury.

OVER FROM PEARCE.

Constable Hal Smith and Jim Lemons spent the day in the county seat returning to their home at Pearce in the afternoon.

TO DOUGLAS.

County Treasurer Gay C. Welch went to Douglas today where he was called in official business, expecting to return home tonight.

SPENT SUNDAY.

C. T. Harris and wife and Oscar Doyle, of Lowell, spent the day in Tombstone yesterday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Holland.

SPENT DAY HERE.

Patrolman Billy Sherrill, of Bisbee, spent yesterday in Tombstone, the guest of his brother, Assistant Clerk W. A. Sherrill, of the board of supervisors.

CIVIL CASE IN COURT.

A civil case, O. G. Stevenson vs. S. Papovich, is on trial in the Superior court today. The case is for damages arising over the loss of some goats in Dixie Canyon.

OVER FROM BISBEE.

Mrs. Joe Bishop and daughter, Miss Emma, arrived in Tombstone yesterday from Lowell, where they have been visiting relatives, and will locate here again.

BACK FROM NAVY.

John Kries, who has been in the navy, located at San Pedro, returned to Tombstone today, having been discharged and continued on to Gleeson this afternoon.

MACHINERY ARRIVES.

A new Diesel engine and compressor arrived for the Bunker Hill Mines Co. This will be a help to quite a number of miners when it is installed and gets to working.

GLEESON VISITORS.

Among the visitors in Tombstone today from Gleeson on business matters were Judge M. J. Sullivan, Constable L. M. Brown and G. I. Van Meter. They returned home this afternoon.

RETURNED HOME.

Mrs. Alfred Paul, who spent the past week here on a visit with her mother, Mrs. G. W. Swain, returned to her home yesterday. Her sister, Miss Alice Swain, accompanied her home, returning this morning.

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.

Demurrer in the case of Willard R. Bell against the city of Bisbee, a damage case resulting from a fall into the subway, was heard and sustained yesterday in the superior court in this city before Judge Lockwood. The case will go to trial next Wednesday.

TO SERVE OUT SENTENCE.

Cleve Irby, who was convicted in the Superior court several weeks ago for violating the prohibition amendment, was brought back yesterday from Tucson, where he was acquitted of the conspiracy charge, and will now serve out his sentence received in the local court.

RETURNED FROM TUCSON.

Attorney W. G. Gilmore returned home Saturday from Tucson, where he has been the past two weeks, representing several defendants in the alleged conspiracy case in the Federal court. Mr. Gilmore's clients, Cleve Irby and John Ames were both acquitted.

MEETING OF COMMERCIAL CLUB CALLED.

A meeting of the Tombstone Commercial club has been called for Friday night at the council chambers of the city hall. Important business is to come up before the meeting, including annual election of officers, and all members are requested to be present.

SPECIAL VENIRE.

Following is the special venire of jurors which reported in the Superior Court today:

Joseph F. Leppert, C. Winstead, E. G. Riney, W. G. Bryan, A. Phibby, J. S. Stewart, Ralph Ingram, Albert Reynolds, J. W. Woods, A. C. Hinters, of Bisbee; R. E. Harris, M. McMahon, Chas. N. Moore, W. B. Cramer, J. E. Bryan, of Douglas; J. C. Fisher, of Pearce; H. E. Faulcomer, of Wilcox; A. J. We'll, of Dos Cabezas; A. L. Loffgreen, Robinson; S. Moss, of Lowell; O. D. Walker, of Warren; A. B. Short, of Rucker.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

TO LOS ANGELES.

Mrs. H. B. Brandt left yesterday for Los Angeles, where she will visit with her parents.

TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Miss Virginia Marris left Sunday for San Francisco, where she will spend several months on a visit with relatives.

WERE IN BISBEE.

Sheriff James McDonald and assistant County Attorney M. I. McKilligan were in Bisbee yesterday and today on business.

STANDARD OIL MAN.

J. J. Sparks, of the Standard Oil branch at Lowell, was in town today looking after the local trade. He returned to Bisbee today.

IN FROM FORT.

J. C. Jemore, of Fort Huachuca, was a visitor in Tombstone today, proving up on his homestead before U. S. Commissioner W. A. Fowler.

THANKS.

The ladies who gave the dance and supper last night wish to thank all those who helped make the affair the success that it was, and especially Mr. George Rockhill, manager of the Tombstone-Bisbee stage, who so generously gave the assistance of value to them.

HOLDING JUVENILE COURT.

Judge A. C. Lockwood is in Bisbee today holding juvenile court. Owing to the jury in the case of A. G. Stevenson vs. S. Papovich having gone to Bisbee to view the premises in Dixie Canyon, the dispute being over a water right, there was not sufficient jury-men on the panel to conduct another case, and the balance of the jury was excused until tomorrow. His Honor taking advantage of the occasion to dispose of several juvenile cases in the Warren District.

LOST LAST NIGHT.

Six silver spoons are missing from the supper room, and three hats and one ladies' purse are over from the dance last night. Please return the spoons to the Prospector Office and call at the Crystal theater for the hats and pocket book. The spoons were probably taken as a practical joke, probably slipped into someone's pocket by the man or woman next you in fun, but it breaks up a set and the return is requested by the ladies. An overcoat was taken as well as some hats.

GENUINE SHAMROCK

Sheriff James McDonald was probably the only one in Tombstone really able to display a real Irish shamrock yesterday and today. A soldier friend of the Sheriff who is now in England sent him a small plant, neatly packed which arrived in good shape, and it is now one of the treasured articles at the Sheriff's office.

UP FROM BENSON.

President A. G. Smith, of the Cochise County State Bank, and wife, were visitors in Tombstone today. Mr. Smith, who is an ardent booster for the San Pedro dam project, reports that two successful meetings were held last evening, one at St. David and the other at Benson, on the occasion of the visit of Andrew Kimball and George E. Maxwell, who are touring Arizona in the interests of the Olmstead river control measure, now up before Congress. Mr. Smith states that the plan will eventually work out which will ultimately result in immeasurable benefit to Arizona.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Tombstone Commercial Club will meet at the City Hall on Friday night at 8 sharp and all members are requested to be present.

RETURNED FROM PHOENIX.

J. N. Gaines returned home yesterday from Phoenix, where he has been during the session of the legislature.

FROM PHOENIX.

Miss King, representing the McNeil company, of Phoenix, was a visitor in Tombstone today on business for her firm.

OVER FROM LOWELL.

Charles Wiles, of Lowell, was in the county seat today, having been called here as a witness before the Superior Court.

TO WILCOX.

J. S. Chambers, agent for the Dodge motor cars went to Wilcox today, to look after his territory in that end of the county. He will return via Benson tomorrow.

THROUGH ON TRIP.

Deputy Game Warden M. P. Cosby of Benson, passed through Tombstone today, accompanied by his wife, en route to Bisbee. Hereford and surrounding district.

GETTING COMMON.

The little game of "twipe something" has been going on at the last two or three dances held in Gage Hall and its about time a stop was put to this thing. A soldier overcoat was among the missing articles on Monday night.

CASE TO JURY.

The case of A. G. Stevenson vs. S. Papovich is expected to go to the jury this evening, having been on for the past three days. The jury went to Dixie Canyon to view the premises, and the case will be concluded by evening recess or tomorrow morning.

BELIEVE IN SIGNS.

The City Council are to be asked to provide signs for traffic at Fifth and Allen and Fifth and Fremont streets as well as First and Allen and the next street beyond First on Allen so that motorists can get in and out of the center of town to the best advantage.

BOUCHEY WRITES.

Glenn Allen Bouchee formerly employed at the Cochise Motor Co., has written from Nancy, France, that he is just recovering from an attack of influenza. He says he expects to return to the United States in the next couple of months. He is a member of 163 Sanitary Train, 28th Division.—Bisbee Ore.

MARRIED AT DOUGLAS.

The wedding of Miss Goldie Blumenthal, a popular and well known young woman of Douglas, and Mr. Sydney Haas, of Bisbee, took place Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Judge William C. Jack officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Haas will reside in Bisbee, where Mr. Haas has business interests.—Douglas Dispatch.

INFLUENZA INFORT HUACHUCA.

According to reports received today from Fort Huachuca there are a large number of influenza cases there, having broken out within the past week. It is expected that if the disease becomes much more prevalent a quarantine will be put in effect until the disease can be stamped out.

EL PASO MERCHANTSTO TOUR ARIZONA.

Fifty business houses of El Paso have agreed to make the proposed chamber of commerce trade excursion through Arizona and New Mexico in April. It is also being considered, but nothing definite has been decided upon this feature of the trip. A military band and a quartette will accompany the business men.

FROM SAN ANTONIO.

O. G. Bell, formerly in charge of the truck department of the Bunker Hill Mining company, who has recently returned from overseas, arrived yesterday from San Antonio, where he has been located since his return. He has taken a position with the Day & Night Garage, and expects to make Tombstone his future home. He was married while in San Antonio and his wife will arrive within a short while.

CLEANING UP.

The Tombstone Rifle Club is having its range cleared of all obstructions that have grown up in the last year and are also having an arrow head clearing made from the 800 range to the county roadway which will give shooters a clear vision of approaching vehicles. They are also having it cleared that way so as to permit of a roadway down to the various shooting stations without having to cross the range.

CHENOWETH PRELIMINARY.

The preliminary of the State vs. Hale Chenoweth charged with killing Claude McDowell near Paradise some time ago, was heard before Justice of the Peace A. Wentworth. The state was represented by Assistant County Attorney M. I. McKilligan while Attorney W. G. Gilmore appeared for the defendant. Witnesses for the state were the wife and child of the deceased. The case was still on trial late this afternoon.

(From Thursday's Daily)

IN FROM SUNNYSIDE.

G. J. Peterson, well known pioneer rancher of Sunnyside, on the south end of the Huachuca was a visitor in the county seat today, having come in to prove up on his land before United States Commissioner W. A. Fowler.

SOLD OUT DAIRY.

James Lamb today sold out his milk dairy to Thomas Cook, who takes charge immediately and will continue to supply the old customers.

FROM BUENA.

W. M. McLaughlin, of Buena, was among the visitors in the county seat today having business matters. He returned home this afternoon.

OVER FROM BISBEE.

W. S. Crawford, former linotype operator of the Prospector, and now connected with the Bisbee Review, is spending several days in Tombstone with friends. Crawford has many friends in the county seat who are always glad to greet him.

CHENOWETH HELDWITHOUT BAIL.

Following the preliminary hearing held before Judge A. Wentworth, Hale Chenoweth, charged with the murder of Claude McDowell was committed to the county jail without bail to await trial in the Superior Court. Witnesses for the state at the preliminary yesterday were the wife and small son of McDowell, who saw the shooting. The case will probably come up at the present term of court.

DAMAGE CASE AGAINST CITY OF BISBEE.

The Superior Court was occupied today with the case of Willard R. Bell against the City of Bisbee for damages, alleged to have occurred over a fall received into the subway. The plaintiff's attorney, following the selection of the jury, asked that the jury be allowed to go over and view the premises, which was granted by the court, provided the plaintiff paid all expenses. The case will be resumed tomorrow.

IMPORTANT MATTERS AT CLUB MEETING.

Important matters for the interests of Tombstone are slated for the meeting of the Tombstone Commercial club tomorrow night, and up to today a large attendance at the meeting has been promised. The officers and directors of the club are making every effort to have every member of the club present, since the annual election of officers and directors will be held and other matters of vital interest to the old club are scheduled to come up for discussion and action. The club has been formed and has been in existence for over a year now and much good has been accomplished, but it should not be left to a few to look after the interests at heart, hence a large and representative gathering is being asked. Remember at 7:45 tomorrow night at the council chambers of the city hall.

(From Friday's Daily)

FROM DOUGLAS.

Attorney Bruce Stephenson, of Douglas, was a visitor in the city today.

FROM BISBEE.

City Marshal J. A. Kempton of Bisbee, was a visitor in town today as a witness before the Superior Court.

TO RANCH.

E. H. Reeves and J. H. McPherson today made a trip out to Mr. Reeves' J. O. Bar ranch, returning about noon.

BISBEE JUSTICE.

Justice of the Peace James Allison, of Bisbee, spent the day in the county seat, having been called as a witness before the Superior court.

THROUGH TO PHOENIX.

Bert Fletcher, of Bisbee, spent a few hours in Tombstone today en route to Phoenix where he goes on a several days' trip. He is traveling overland.

RETURNS TO DOUGLAS.

Mrs. Wm. Meredith returned to her home in Douglas today after spending the past two weeks in this city on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tracey.

BISBEE ATTORNEY.

Among the Bisbee attorneys in the city yesterday and today were City Attorney S. H. Kyle, and Fred Sutter and Alex Murray, having a case before the Superior Court.

INFLUENZA AGAININ WARREN DISTRICT.

According to word from Bisbee, 12 new influenza cases were reported yesterday, and the disease is gradually gaining headway in the district.

SOON HAVE AIR.

The new Diesel combination air compressor brought here by the Bunker Hill Mines company for the purpose of supplying air for drilling and hoisting to the lesors of the district is being installed and air will soon be available.

TO ROAD CAMPS.

A number of the miners who were thrown out of employment at Gleeson by the closing of the mines, have come to Tombstone and are going to work at one of the road camps, some at the state camp near Trappman's and others at Tooheys on the Tombstone-Benson road.

TENNIS COURT FINISHED.

The tennis court near the residence of C. J. Wynn is almost completed and the local fans are making arrangements for local tournaments to begin as soon as the weather permits. Later it is planned to form matches with surrounding cities. There are a number of enthusiasts in Tombstone who will join the club.

GREAT WESTERNPOWER HOUSE RUNNING.

Word received from Courtland is to the effect that the power house of the Great Western Mining company is now running, having been started up last week. Electricity is being furnished to the new shaft for hoisting and lighting and work is progressing despite the present copper conditions.

DAMAGE CASE ON.

The damage case of Willard R. Bell vs. the City of Bisbee, in which the plaintiff has sued the city for alleged neglect in leaving open an excavation in the rear of the Imperial ice cream parlor, for damages in the sum of $18,000 was continued again today in the Superior court. The jury on motion of the plaintiff's attorney, were taken to Bisbee yesterday to view the premises. It is expected the case will be concluded by tonight.

(From Saturday's Daily)

WILL BRING PRISONERS

Deputy Sheriff Joe Hardwick will arrive in Tombstone tomorrow from Douglas bringing with him a number of prisoners for the county jail, including James Alford and Thomas Keaton, who were arrested for conducting a still near McNeal.

FROM RANCH.

Col. Henry Pyatt was a visitor in town today with his family from his ranch near Canille.

MOVING CAMP.

Toohey Bros. are moving the main portion of their camp from the Benson road to Pima county where they have taken a contract. The remainder of the work to be completed on this road has been sublet to a man named Cox.

TO FOR HUACHUCA.

Deputy Sheriff Harry Rafferty went to Fort Huachuca this morning, where he was called on business connected with the sheriff's office.

RECOVERED HORSE.

Through its circular system the sheriff's office has recovered a roan mare stolen several weeks ago near Forest Station. The horse was found in the possession of a man at Wilcox who claims he bought it from another. An investigation is being made.

ARIZONA RANKS HIGH.

Arizona ranks 24th in per capita bank deposits out of a total of 53 states and territories of the United States according to figures received in the district yesterday from the comptroller of the currency. The state's record is based on a population of 276,000. Bank deposits are $57, 916,000 of $209.48 per capita. New York ranks first, California, fifth, Nevada 23rd, New Mexico 44th, Texas 41st and Utah 27th.

MORE JURORS.

A special venire of 50 jurors was drawn today to report on Monday and the sheriff's office is busy issuing subpoenas.

COCHISE BOARD FIRSTTO CLOSE RECORDS.

According to a telegram of congratulations received this afternoon by Secretary Ray B. Krebs, of the Local Board for Cochise county, the Cochise board is the first to get all its records into Phoenix, thereby closing all business connected with the board. Considering the large volume of business handled by the local board, being one of the largest districts, this is considered a record.

ATTORNEYS HERE.

Among the attorneys in the city today were S. K. Williams, Joan Sanders, Rod McDonald, Fred Sutter, Alex Murry, E. J. Flannigan, S. H. Kyle, Bisbee; and S. W. White, of Douglas.

RETURNED.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Merrill are back from a two weeks trip by auto to Phoenix.

FROM DOUGLAS.

W. R. Shadley, of Douglas, spent today in Tombstone. Mr. Shadley while here expressed himself as strong for the Borderland route being completed as originally planned through Fairbanks.

GOOD MONEY FROMSHIPMENT OF CANS.

The local auxiliary of the Red Cross today received a check for $93.49 for a carload of cans recently shipped to the Phelps-Dodge at Bisbee. This represented a clear profit after all expenses, including labor and freight had been paid. Another clean-up is being planned in the near future.

CAUGHT BOOTLEGGERS.

Constable Jess Moore, of Wilcox, today brought in three prisoners to the county jail, who were arrested yesterday for transporting liquor. They had in their possession several gallons of home distilled whiskey, known as "white mule." The men arrested were Jim Evans, M. F. Terrill, and Mod Cossart. They will await trial in the Superior court.

REPAIRING ROOF.

Chas. Fredericks and force are busy repairing the roof of the City Hall which had developed several bad leaks.

TONIGHT.

At the Crystal tonight Harold Lockwood will appear with an exceedingly strong support in "Pat's First," a special production of six reels. This is an advanced price attraction and can be seen for twenty-five and thirty-five cents.

DRAFT BOARD, DUTIESOVER, TO DISSOLVE

Cochise's draft board and medical advisory will be officially dissolved on the last day of this month, according to announcement yesterday of Ray B. Krebs, secretary of the draft board and Dr. George Bridge, chairman of the medical advisory board. Final papers of the two boards were forwarded yesterday to Adjutant General Charles W. Harris, of Arizona, at Phoenix.

The draft board consisted of Dr. C. H. Hunt, chairman, Ray B. Krebs, secretary, and H. L. Hutchison, member.

The medical advisory board included Dr. George Bridge, chairman, Dr. N. C. Bledsoe, Dr. Harry Reese, Dr. R. B. Durfee and Dr. Carl H. Lund, of Douglas.

THE CATLEMEN'S CONVENTION

WILCOX, Ariz., March 22.—The Cochise-Graham Cattlemen's convention will be held at Wilcox April 4th and 5th. It will be a great event. The sports will be in charge of H. A. Johnson, known as Hackberry Slim. There will be the usual entertainment features consisting of cowboy sports, burro roping, broncho busting and scratching the Kaiser. A dance will be given every evening during the meeting. A banquet is also arranged by the association. People are requested to bring in all the mean horses and burros that they have and they will be fed during the carnival and well cared for.